TROUBLE FOR ROLLER.

It was a fine afternoon at Hawthorne Thursday, and although the card was only ordinary, by far the largest crowd of the week was on hand.

W. H. "Dutch" Roller got himself into trouble for winning a race. This same Roller has been in the worst of luck for some time, but his old friends stuck to him and they certainly must have been well rewarded by Eimer's win in the fourth race.

This horse has been a consistent last or "also ran" in most of his recent races, and on this form it did not seem that he had a chance to beat such horses as Samovar, Mayme M. M. or Prince Blazes at a mile and a quarter.

Evidently Roller and his nearest friends thought differently, as they backed Eimer down from 15 to 1 to 10 to 1. They were certainly right, for Eimer went to the front shortly after the start and led from "end to end" and won as he pleased. Mayme M. M. finished second, Prince Blazes third and Samovar, who had beaten Eimer a city block the last time they met, fourth.

Judge Rees hesitated a long time before officially announcing Eimer as the winner and then sent for Roller. The latter was told that the further entry of Eimer would be refused and was severely drawn over the coals for the horse's sudden awakening.

Perhaps the worst lot of horses that could be found made up the field in the fifth race. It was at a mile, and not one of the starters was worth the price of his board. False Lead was backed and so was Three Bars, but neither of them proved good enough to win. Gadsden, a 50 to 1 chance, was lucky enough to carry off the purse.

The two-year-olds racing at the local tracks are certainly a bad lot. Proof of this is that they beat one another so often. In the first race there were fourteen of these youngsters and Merito was favorite. She ran a fine race, but landed in second place, the winner turning up in Erla d'Or.

There was a long delay in the second race before the starter could get the field away, and when he did the horses were all mixed up and there was a bad jam on the first turn. Once straightened away down the backstretch Murat went to the front and showed the way well into the stretch. But about the eighth post along came Mary Kinsella and glided by Murat and Loyaletta as though they were stationary and won off by herself. After Mary Kinsella parted company with Murat and Loyaletta the former became very tired, and when Knapp made his final effort to beat Loyaletta for the place he resorted to foul tactics. Murat finished second, but was promptly set back for fouling.

Fair Deciever won the third event, which was at seven furlongs, very handsily from Sim W. The latter appeared to have Fair Deciever beaten at the head of the stretch but under his heavy impost of 121 pounds tired at the end and was extremely lucky to beat Miss Ross for second place. There was considerable promiscuous talk about Tabor's ride on Sim W. He, however, did his best, and the judge seemed satisfied, in a way, and turned his deaf ear to the scandal-mongers.

The last race was a cake walk for Silver Tone. He broke second but went to the front on the first turn, and, setting his own pace, won off by himself by three lengths from Jim McCleavy.

Judge Rees did not like the way Hardly has been raced and her entry will be refused at Hawthorne hereafter.

Winner—B. f. by Pursebearer—Martha. Post 10 minutes. Start straggling. Won hand ridden only, but out to the last ounce; second and third were driving to the limit. Erla d'Or is a good, consistent filly, and was skilfully handled. Booker had her close to the rail and saved all the ground possible. He did not lose his head, either, when the pinch came and hand rode the filly cleverly. Merito was off poorly and ran a good, game race. She was perhaps the best. Zaza got a running start. She will hardly do unless weighted very lightly. Scarlet Lily ran far out in all breakaways. This ruined what ever chance she had of winning. She stopped almost to a walk in the last eighth. Dramburg was badly interfered with when Microscope fell. Taking this into consideration, his race was a good one. Seaton, on Aloha II, was the cause of the mixup in which Microscope fell. Scratched—(13457) Clara Woolley, 115; (13457) Lord Weir, 113; (13441) Russell R., 108; (13441) Postmaster Bailey, 105.

Erla d'Or, place, 8 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Merito, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Zaza, show, evens.

*Disqualified for foul. Time, 13, 25, 36½, 48½, 1:01, 1:14, 1:27½. Winner—B. f. by Sir Dixon—Lady Elizabeth. Post 22 minutes. Start fair. Won cleverly. There was a lot of action behind the winner. Mary Kinsella was most saved at the post and ran a good race. Nutt had her close to the rail and luckily escaped interference all the way. When those in front stopped she came away on call. Murat was staggering and all out. He bore in and interfered with Loyaletta about the sixteenth post. This was the cause of the disqualification. He was prominent in all breakaways and perhaps ran his race there. Pitfall was running over horses at the end. Astor ran a fair race, but not a good one by any means. Free Lady caused all the delay at the post and eventually got a running start. Loyaletta is a consistent performer.

Scratched—(13443) Elidid, 110; (13454) La Champagne, 105; (13444) Vinetta, 105; (13407) Overella, 109. Mary Kinsella, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Loyaletta, place, 3 to 1; show, 3 to 2. Pitfall, show, 3 to 1. Murat, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. f. by Deceiver—Hattie Vaughan. Post 6 minutes. Start poor. Won in a mild drive; second and third driving to the limit. Fair Deceiver took the shortest route and ran a good race. She hung on more gamely than usual today. On the far turn Sim W. passed her and seemed to have her beaten, but he weakened under his heavy impost when the pinch came. He was very tired at the end and willing to lie down. Miss Ross would have beaten him for second place in a few more strides. The latter ran one of her best races. Watch Mocorito. She finished with a terrific rush. Uarda was dull of speed. Her race was hardly up to the mark. Whatever chance Periwig had of winning was destroyed at the start. Overton evidently went to sleep on him at the post. Tony Licalzi ran as if stale.

Scratched—(13347) Bon Jour, 115; (12883) Braw Law, 124; (13444) Flop, 107; (13344) Barton, 115; (13346) Kamsin, 111; (13408) Red Gidd, 107. Fair Deceiver, place, 24 to 1; show, evens. Sim W., place, 24 to 1; show, evens. Miss Ross, show, 3 to 2. Uarda, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5.

GUESS ME TO BE SOLD.

Mr. James V. Carter has determined to abandon racing temporarily and for that reason will sell at auction, at Hawthorne tomorrow, an extremely promising lot of youngsters besides his grand 3-year-old filly, Guess Me.
At the same time Mr. Z. H. Carter will sell Babe Carter, a 3-year-old Kingston filly that is sure to prove fast and a winner.
The 2-year-olds include a full sister to Guess Me and a half sister to Frank Ward. Time, the sister to Guess Me, has been in training but thirty days, and has already shown quarters in :24—speed enough to induce in the mind of any turfman the wish to own her. The others are all very speedy and ready to race soon.

Winner—B. g. by Kolus—Nita.
Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily. The next three were driving hard. Einer came to life with a sudden start and ran away from his field. This was one of the rankest form reversals of this season on the local tracks. Mayme M. M. ran her race and had no excuses.
Knight, on her, interfered with Samovar repeatedly down the backstretch. Prince Blazes came with his usual rush through the stretch. Samovar tired badly from the sixteenth post home.
Einer's entry at Hawthorne will be refused in the future.
Overweights—Prince Blazes, 1 pound.
Einer, place, 3 to 1; show, 4 to 5. Mayme M. M., place, 2 to 5. Prince Blazes, show, out.
Samovar, place, evens; show, out.

Winner—B. g. by Onoko—Gadabout.
Post 12 minutes. Start fair. Won in the hardest kind of a drive of two; third and fourth were driving as hard. Gadsden outgamed Three Bars. The latter seemed to have the race cinched swinging into the stretch, but weakened badly when the pinch came. Gadsden hung on like a bulldog and won in the last stride. False Lead was wobbling all over the track in the stretch. Ramona made up a lot of ground in the last half. Storm Queen had no excuses. She simply quit when the pressure came. It was a very bad lot.
Overweights—False Lead, 3 pounds.
Gadsden, place, 20 to 1; show, 8 to 1. Three Bars, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. False Lead, Winner—B. g. by Falsetto—Silver Thread.

Off at the first break to a good start. Won handily; second and third under keen pressure.
There was nothing to the race but Silver Tone. He took the lead on the first turn and no horse ever got near to him. Jim McClevey ran another consistent race. Vandusen, on Uncle Abb, evidently thought it was not a go and left the post pulling up. The old horse was good and ran a game race. Antiquary will not do at a mile. Refugee began to prop after going about half the journey.
Scratched—13445 Algarata, 117.
